

STAKEHOLDER CONSULTATIONS

United Nations Sustainable Development Cooperation Framework

UN Resident Coordinator

Tuesday 25 May 2021

UNITED NATIONS
THAILAND

UN SECRETARY GENERAL'S COMMON AGENDA

“Our Common Agenda” will build on the 12 commitments contained in the UN Declaration on the 75th Anniversary (A/RES/75/1)

Twelve Commitments

 We will leave no one behind	 We will protect our planet	 We will promote peace and prevent conflicts
 We will abide by international law and ensure justice	 We will place women and girls at the center	 We will build trust
 We will improve digital cooperation	 We will advance the United Nations	 We will ensure sustainable financing
 We will boost partnerships	 We will listen to and work with youth	 We will be prepared

13th NESDP HI-VALUE AND SUSTAINABLE THAILAND

UNSDCF OUTCOME 1:

Inclusive, green, resilient,
low-carbon, & sustainable economy

Milestones:
1

Milestones:
10

HIGH VALUE-ADDED AND GREEN ECONOMY

ECO-FRIENDLY LIVING

Milestones:

Milestones:

HIGH OPPORTUNITY SOCIETY

KEY ENABLERS
FOR THAILAND

UNSDCF OUTCOME 3:

Ensuring that those at risk of being left furthest behind can participate & benefit from development, free from all forms of discrimination, with UN's contributing towards 5
milestones.

UNSDCF OUTCOME 2:

Investing in human capital development through strengthening of institutions, partnerships, &
the empowerment of people.

UN'S VALUE PROPOSITION

- Cutting-edge policy support, technical assistance and drawing global expertise and best practices
- Harnessing science-based solutions to tackle pressing development challenges, e.g. climate change, air pollution, reducing emissions, demographic dynamics, and the digital divide
- Convening and coordinating strategic platforms and partnerships to support innovation, financing, foresight and integrated development solutions
- Responding and engaging on international dimensions of development such as migration, trade, and the trafficking